

Bay Area Rapid Folders Newsletter

Fall 2000

Bay Area Rapid Folders (BARF) meets on the first Saturday of the month, 2-6pm, at the Bernal Heights Branch Library, 500 Cortland St., SF CA 94110.
Meetings are free to everybody, though membership is encouraged ($15/year, $20 outside US).

In this Holiday issue...

Message from the Editor	1-2
Clown Nose by Jeremy Shafer	3-4
Jack O' Lantern by Jeremy Shafer	5-7
T-Shirt Jack-O-Lantern by Jeremy Shafer	8
Pavo by Juan López Figueroa,	9-11
Ribboned Envelope by Laura Kruskal.	12
Menorah by Jeremy Shafer	13-18
Star by V'ann Cornelius,	19
Baby on a Bed by Jeremy Shafer	20
Newsletter back issue highlights.	21
Cross Envelope by Jeremy Shafer	back cover

Message from the Editor

Happy Holidays!

Hope all is well on the folding front. Lately, as always, I've been in a folding/diagramming frenzy. This time, it's in preparation for my two upcoming origami trips, Colombia in November, and Italy in December.

Right now my book is in the hands of the publisher and all we can do is wait. I've been told by St. Martin's Press that printers all over the world are booked for the next few months printing zillions of Harry Potter books (no joke!), so it looks like my book won't be coming out in time for Christmas.

Onto a more progressive topic, my latest folding obsession has been origami clown noses. People wear all sorts of goofy hats, crazy glasses and weird clothes; I think it's high time we focus on what we wear on our noses! Just as anything can be a hat by sticking it on your head, anything can be a clown nose by sticking it on your nose! In just one week